

The Titan Times

“These are our times.”

The word "THE" is rendered in a bold, blue, 3D block font with a dark blue outline and a slight shadow effect, giving it a three-dimensional appearance.

The word "ART" is rendered in a very large, bold, yellow 3D block font with a dark brown outline and a slight shadow effect, making it the most prominent text element.

The word "EDITION" is rendered in a large, bold, green 3D block font with a dark green outline and a slight shadow effect, positioned below "ART".

Manna House will be purchasing Art Work from WSCTC's Senior Art Students!

Page 1

Windows for the Holiday season!

Pages 2,3,4,5

Watercolor and Salt Glazed Paintings

PG's 7,10,10,10

MANNA House Supports!

Manna House in Wilkes-Barre, Pa. is an organization that provides housing for homeless people from ages 18 to 25. Manna House will be purchasing Art Work from some of WSCTC's Senior Art Students to display in their offices. The Art works are Watercolor and Salt Glazed Watercolor paintings done in the Senior Art Class. WSCTC Senior Art Students are shown with four art works purchased by Manna House that will be displayed in their offices. The Art works are Watercolor and Salt Glazed Watercolor paintings done in the Senior Art Class. The school will also be donating three other art works.

Shown in the picture from left to right are:

Morgan Stash, Brittany Miskewicz, Tamara Davis, and Lauren Steidinger

Walking in a Window Wonderland!

Walking in a Window Wonderland!

Walking in a Window Wonderland!

Walking in a Window Wonderland!

Walking in a Window Wonderland!

Watercolor and Salt Glazed Paintings

The Watercolor and Salt Glazed Watercolor paintings shown here were created in Mrs. Mullin's Senior Art Class. The paintings are scheduled to be purchased by Manna House for display in their offices. Manna House is a residence for homeless individuals aged 18 to 25.

The Senior Art students created the paintings as part of a classroom assignment. Other watercolor paintings are on display in the front lobby.

Special thanks To Mr. Mullin for supporting the Titan Times Art Edition!